- Appropriate clothing significantly contributes to making your trip comfortable and enjoyable. Essential trekking gear includes:
 - Down jacket
 - Thermals for nights and early mornings
 - Merino wool t-shirt for sunny days
 - Rain jacket for rain and snow
 - Gaiters to prevent snow from entering your boots
 - Waterproof hiking boots
 - Trekking poles for navigating through deep snow
 - Rain covers for your backpack
- Avoid overpacking by taking only the essentials. Pack lightly for your trek, leaving non-essential items at your hotel in Kathmandu.
- Remember to "leave only footprints." Carry a bag for trash and avoid littering the trails.
- Trekking preparation involves building physical fitness through activities like aerobics, strength endurance, and cardio workouts. Aerobic training, such as swimming, running, walking, and jogging, helps your body adjust to lower oxygen levels at higher altitudes.
- Bring your own water bottle to refill from natural sources along the way, rather than purchasing plastic bottles. Teahouses offer water and can boil it for you. Avoid ice cubes or chilled water, as well as alcohol and caffeine, while trekking at high altitudes.

- Respect local customs, especially when visiting monasteries. Do not take photos inside monasteries unless permitted, and always ask for permission before photographing people or children.
- Avoid eating fruits or vegetables unless they have been peeled or cooked.
- On popular trekking trails, you will likely stay in teahouses, which offer basic accommodations like a bed, blanket, and hot food. Do not expect luxury.
- There are no ATMs along the trails in the Himalayas, so calculate how much money you will need and carry it with you. It's better to have a little extra than not enough.
